Taghmon ICA The December meeting

took place on Wednesday 10th of December. The Christmas Flower demonstration took place first which with Bernie Delaney from Wallace's of Wellingtonbridge showing us some lovely arrangements which she very kindly raffled at the end of the demonstration. As it was an open demonstration, it was nice to welcome some visitors and we hope to see them again in the New Year. A festive tea was enjoyed by all present, served by Joan Bell. A vote of sympathy was passed with the Murphy and Nash families and also to Breda Banville on the death of her mother. The business of the meeting was kept to a minimum. It is hoped to start some classes in the new year with the Go for Life grant. Watch this space and be prepared to see some very flexible ladies around Taghmon. Mella Winters won the competition for the nicest Christmas candle. Carol Gray wished everyone present a Happy Christmas and a peaceful New Year. The next meeting takes place on Wednesday 21st of January at 8pm in the Scout Hall.

Camross Christmas Fair

Camross Hall was buzzing on Sun.7th last as the annual Christmas fair took place, and Santa Claus kept the show in full swing, singing and dancing with all the boys and girls. Sales were above par for most of the stall holders and all enjoyed a good sociable afternoon.
